

Dr Amjad Hossain

Bangladesh

Dr Hossain graduated from Dhaka Medical College in 1978. MS from National Institute of Traumatology and Orthopedic Rehabilitation, University of Dhaka in 1986. Specialized foreign fellowship in the field of Orthopaedics & Joint Replacement in various centers. Devoted himself to trauma management as the Non Op Coordinator of AOA Asia steering committee and president of AO trauma Bangladesh. He actively took part in the War of Liberation in 1971. He built Amena Baki Residential Model School & College in his native village. He is one of the leading opinion molders in the arena of Total Hip & Knee Arthroplasty in Bangladesh.