

Prof Bijayendra singh

UK

Prof Bijayendra Singh is one of the leading Upper Limb Surgeons in Kent and South East of England. He specializes in the management of problems related to Shoulder, Elbow, Wrist and Hand joints. He has over 80 publications in national & international journals and a number of book chapters. He had presented at over 120 national and international meetings. He has been appointed as a Visiting Professor & Pathway Director for the Masters course in Minimally Invasive Surgery at the Canterbury Christchurch University. He works at Medway NHS Foundation Trust.