

Dr.S.Venkat

UK

Dr.S.Venkat is a medical graduate from Stanley medical college, Chennai. He emigrated to UK in 1979 and trained in centres of excellence (London,Cambridge,Edinburgh and Birmingham). He returned to India in 1990 and joined Kovai Medical Centre (KMCH), Coimbatore as consultant orthopaedic surgeon. He played a pivotal role in establishing orthopaedic department for the KMCH. He served IOA as executive member and Vice President. He conducted Orthocon from 1990 until 2003 and edited Orthopaedic update (India)journal. His special interests were trauma and joint replacement surgery. He started United hospital, Coimbatore as a trauma and orthopaedic centre in 1999. For personal reasons he returned to UK in 2003. He is working as Consultant orthopaedic surgeon at King George Hospital, London providing elective hip and knee service.