

Dr Leo Donnan
Australia

Dr Leo Donnan is based at the Royal Children's Hospital in Melbourne Australia. He trained in Australia, the United Kingdom and Europe in Paediatric Orthopaedics and Limb Reconstruction. His principle clinical interests are hip dysplasia, limb reconstruction and orthopaedic oncology but is involved in all aspects of orthopaedic care for young patients. He has held positions as Head of Unit, Chief of Surgery and Director of training at the Royal Children's Hospital and has a significant interest in clinical research and education and holds a Masters in Surgical Education.