

Dr Madhu Tiruveedhula.

UK

Dr Madhu Tiruveedhula is a Consultant Orthopaedic surgeon at Basildon and Thurrock University Hospital, UK. He sub-specialises in Paediatric Orthopaedics, Adult Foot & Ankle surgery and Diabetic Foot Reconstructions. After his MBBS in India, he completed his Specialist Registrar training in Orthopaedics from Yorkshire Deanery, UK followed by Fellowship training at RNOH, Stanmore, Guy's and St. Thomas' Hospital and Southampton General Hospital. He is a keen teacher, medical school examiner and postgraduate trainer. He published one book chapter and 10 papers in peer reviewed journals. He is currently involved in multiple clinical trials in Paediatric/ Adult F&A and Diabetic foot reconstructions.