

Dr Naresh Kumar

Singapore

Dr Naresh Kumar is based at the National University Hospital Singapore. He specialises in Spine Surgery & internationally well known for his research and innovations in management of metastatic spine disease. He is a graduate & Post-graduate from the All India Institute of Medical Sciences, New Delhi. His spine training is from Queens Medical Centre, Nottingham & Harborview Medical Centre Seattle. He was consultant in the UK for a decade before moving to the University of Singapore. He is director of Undergraduate education for the National University of Singapore. He is well published and has over 100 peer review publication and has written 10 book chapters. He is very active in training and teaching spine fellows from all over the world.