

Professor Philippe NEYRET

He received his initial training in Lyon with Albert TRILLAT and being a former pupil of Henri DEJOUR. He was nominated professor at the University of Lyon in 1994. He is member of several medical societies and an active participant in the SOFCOT, ESSKA, and he served EFORT as chair of the traveling fellowships during 10 years, and now as General Secretary of EFORT Foundation. He is currently President elect of EFORT for the period 06-2019 to 06-2020 and he served ISAKOS as President (2015-2017). He hosted the ISAKOS congress in Lyon on June 2015. He is an international member of the American Knee Society since 10 years. He was also President of the "ACL Study Group", member of the "International Patellar femoral study group" and board member of the "Patellofemoral Foundation" that awarded him In March 2015 with a " Patellofemoral Foundation lifetime achievement". In 2013 he was the President'guest of the Herodicus society. He gave 1150 presentations in more than 350 international and 150 national congresses.