

Prof Ted Mah

Australia

Prof Ted Mah is a Past President of Asia Pacific Orthopaedic Association and currently on the EXCO as Awards & Nomination Chairman. He is the Head of Department of Orthopaedics & Trauma, Northern Adelaide Local Health Network, Adelaide and Flinders Universities. He is the Deputy Editor of the Journal of Orthopaedic Surgery, and concurrently sits on 5 other Editorial Boards. Ted Mah is a Hand & Upper Limb surgeon working in both private and public hospitals. He has written many articles, authored many text books and is the Section Editor for Mercer's Orthopaedic Surgery. For many years Ted Mah assisted Prof Rajasabathy to set up the Hand Surgery Courses in the early 2000's and witnessed the amazing transformation of the original Ganga Hospital to the current state of the art facilities.